Club Special Awards

For 2013 we have new 'special awards' criteria. These awards will now be split into two separate categories. Firstly the Outstanding Performance Award will recognise top level athletic achievements Nationally and Internationally. These will be very infrequently awarded as the criteria are deliberately very strict in order to maintain the value of the award. The second type of award will be the Special Achievements Award. These will be subjective, but should still represent a truly significant achievement for the participant.

In addition to the awards above, there will be a new roll of honour set up on the web site for those completing a marathon, an ultra-marathon or an iron-distance triathlon. Badges will be awarded to each runner each year for these achievements,

OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE AWARD

Running

- 1st, 2nd or 3rd overall in any championship race, UK national or regional (north, south, midlands, England, Wales, Scotland, N.Ireland) . Individuals and teams.
- 1st, 2nd or 3rd in age group at a UK or national championship race.
- 1st, 2nd or 3rd in age group nationally fastest time in that year at a recognised distance.
- Representing Great Britain, England, Scotland, Wales or N Ireland at senior or veteran level.

Triathlon and duathlon

- 1st, 2nd or 3rd overall in the UK national championships
- 1st in age group at the World Championships
- 1st in age group at the European Championships
- 1st in age group in National championships
- 1st in age group in an Iron-distance triathlon.

SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

An exceptionally special, noteworthy achievement that does not fulfil the criteria of the outstanding performance category yet deserves particular recognition. Recipients of Special achievement awards will be decided by a sub-committee for this purpose.

Completing an ultra or marathon or ironman in itself does not meet the criteria unless it was particularly exceptional, but unlike outstanding performance awards it is not elitist.
